2017 Annual Program Report

A few words from the Board President...

In 1997, a group of community leaders convened to lay the foundation for the future of leadership in Sauk County. The result was the Sauk County Institute of Leadership (SCIL). SCIL's objective was, and is, to develop informed, skilled, and engaged civic leaders committed to making Sauk County a great place to live, work, and play. It's safe to say that vision has become a reality. Since inception, approximately 350 participants have graduated from our 9-month program. Participants come from the private sector, as well as from the government, education, religious, and the non-profit worlds. They bring different life experiences, professional backgrounds, and perspectives about what causes are important.

Through their SCIL journey, they come away with a better understanding of the community in which we live, the challenges we face, and their role in finding solutions. Many graduates volunteer their time and their new-found understanding of leadership to the enumerable worthy causes in our community. Others return to their previous occupations ready to help their organizations make a positive contribution.

As a 501(c)3, none of this would be possible without support from the community we serve. This includes our business partners that provide us building space to hold our classes, speakers who take time from busy schedules, and the SCIL board members. Also, UW-Extension, Jenny Erickson, and Joann Mundth Douglas contribute selflessly to ensure the program's continuation. Truly, the extent to which SCIL has made a difference is a direct result of your efforts. Thank you.

SCIL continues to contribute to the future leadership and bright future of Sauk County. Please join me in congratulating the class of 2017!!

Konya Antonetti, President SCIL Board of Directors

2016-17 SCIL Program Curriculum

September — Leadership Concepts

October — Local Government & Land Use

November — Education & Arts

December — Family & Community Issues

January — Public Safety, Justice & Civil Liberties

February — Health Care

March — Community & Economic Development

April — Ag & Natural Resources

May — Celebration of Leadership

I'd recommend it to anyone looking to learn about the area and grow as a person. The SCIL experience is worth FAR more than the time and money invested.

After 20 years of AMAZING success stories from community members all over Sauk County – SCIL is “re-Imagining” itself to become bigger, better, and brighter for the NEXT 20 years and beyond. If you would like to be a part of this process please visit our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/www.scil.net/> and post your suggestions for how to make SCIL the most vibrant and amazing leadership laboratory in the country. If you’re an alum – expect a call, email, or knock at your door in the next few months because we WANT to hear from everyone that has been changed by their experiences in SCIL. We plan to begin the new curriculum in the Fall Of 2018 so there’s no time like the present to be a part of this fantastic process. JUST IMAGINE . . .

The Sauk County Institute of Leadership (SCIL) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. All donations to SCIL are tax deductible.

If you live or work in the Sauk County area and are interested in bettering yourself and your community, SCIL may be for you!

In Their Own Words...

I have learned so much from not only the presenters and speakers at SCIL sessions, but the people and my classmates that are there with me. SCIL was an experience of a lifetime, I wish everyone got the chance to do it.

Elizabeth German, Sauk Prairie High School

SCIL has been a terrific chance to both learn new and improve existing skills and traits needed for leadership, and it’s been a fantastic opportunity to network and make new friends!
