2023 Annual Program Report

A few words from the Board President...

You know as the years go by, it seems that they accelerate. Time has become much more important to me in the last few years, perhaps because I have realized that there are fewer days ahead of me than behind me. I think that's also one of the reasons that SCIL has gotten more and more important to me both personally and professionally over the years. Time has allowed me to see more clearly how important SCIL and programs like it are to our future.

Leonardo De Vinci once wrote, "There are three classes of people: Those that see. Those that see when they are shown. Those that do not see." SCIL is all about helping people to see the world as it is, and then helping them to see how it can be with better, more effective, and compassionate leadership.

To this year's graduates as they join the SCIL family: it is my deepest hope and prayer that in the years to come you will find ways to use the skills and knowledge gained to the betterment of all you come into contact with in the future. Whether at your business, community, church, or wherever leadership is needed – be bold and dare to lead. Help others to see.

May the road rise up to meet you.

IN THEIR OWN WORDS...

SCIL has been an opportunity to grow more personally than professionally. There has not been a better leadership program than SCIL that I have participated in! The program encourages everyone to get out of their comfort zone, but allows everyone to stay there. Morgan encourages the participants to be comfortably uncomfortable. I look forward to the monthly SCIL sessions for the opportunity to learn new things about Sauk County and to become a family with my cohort.

– Mark Ladsten, WCCU Credit Union

SCIL is so much more than I anticipated it would be. It is about genuinely celebrating fellow human beings and engaging and improving skills that can be learned, such as observation, courtesy, and timing to know more about them and yourself, because in knowing yourself you want to know more about others. It is conversations about beautiful art, emotional intelligence, and history. It is explorations of the mind, of Sauk County Companies, and Sauk County itself. The SCIL experience is broad and deep. I have gained so much from SCIL; friendships that inspire and skills to grow beyond graduation. I wanted to know how to use a microphone; I learned how to use my head and my heart! Want to grow? Be prepared!

– Andrea Lombard, Sauk County Board Supervisor

Celebrating Successes!

Please partner with us in our work to build and strengthen community leadership by supporting SCIL at one of the following levels:

Program Support – $500

Help underwrite the costs of a single SCIL leadership session. Your name or your company's name will be featured in written materials and credit will be given during the program by facilitators.

Exclusive Day Sponsor – $1,500

Keynote sponsors help underwrite the costs of bringing specialty speakers to SCIL to build leadership skills (example: supporting costs of hiring a renowned diversity trainer from Rock County). Keynote sponsors receive credit and coverage on handout and electronic materials. In return for generous sponsorship, companies are eligible to receive a one-hour training session taught by SCIL facilitators on a subject (and at a time) that is mutually agreeable.

Leagacy Scholarship Sponsors – Any Amount

These monies are endowed in the Sauk County Institute of Leadership's Community Leadership Fund and are used to provide partial or full scholarships for participants who have high potential but are low on resources. Peers and associates may recognize a person's passion and dedication to leading Sauk County organizations but they may lack the financial wherewithal to attend SCIL.
