2016 Annual Program Report

A few words from the Board President...

It must be my years in the wine industry, for I cannot help but notice the similarity to barrel-aging wine and a program like the Sauk County Institute of Leadership (SCIL.) The purpose of aging wine in oak barrels is to enhance flavors of the grape you might not otherwise taste. SCIL has a similar impact on future leaders—the skills are there, the desire to be an informed, civic-minded leader is waiting to be brought out of each of our participants. And since 1997, SCIL has brought the leadership abilities of over 200 citizens to the forefront, helping make Sauk County a vibrant, thriving community.

SCIL participants, chosen each spring through a competitive application process, represents the best of our citizenry. From high-school students to retirees, business leaders to public employees to the self-employed and self-motivated, all are united by a desire to improve themselves and their communities. Their tuition funds an intensive, nine month course that brings out one's leadership potential through active participation in skills training and understanding local issues. A community service project completes the entire year's collective experience.

As a 501 (c) 3, SCIL could not thrive without support from the community we serve. Foremost among these supporters are the community and business partners that open their space for our learning experiences. Also, UW-Extension and Jenny Erickson, and NUK-USA and Danna Hillmer, are individuals that best exemplify the course's goals through their selfless efforts to ensure the program's continuation. Additionally, the support of the Sauk County Board is integral to the program's continued success, and our gratitude to the Board is eternal.

This spring sees our barrel-aging process finish, as we welcome a new graduating class of active leaders from the SCIL program. Please join me in congratulating the class of 2016!

Colin Walsh, President SCIL Board of Directors

When I applied for SCIL, I really didn't know what to expect. I have lived in Sauk County Wisconsin on and off for 40 years and thought I knew quite a bit about the county. I was wrong. SCIL has opened my eyes and my heart to Sauk County. The opportunities that exist in the county for both personal and professional improvement, the needs of the county, the natural beauty of the county and the rich history of Sauk County are all explored during this 9 month course. I am also humbled by the intelligent business and community leaders I have met on this journey. The class participants are some of the county's brightest business leaders while the class presenters have been entertaining, informative and extremely knowledgeable.

I recommend SCIL to anyone within Sauk County who is interested in meeting a great network of community leaders while developing their own personal and professional leadership abilities.

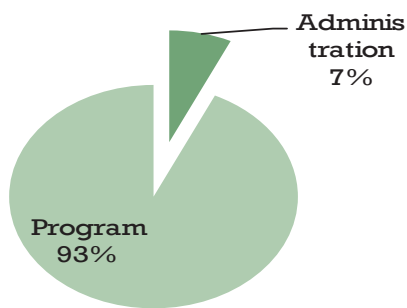

John Philipp

My experience as a participant in SCIL has truly been a gift, a journey for which I am so grateful. My appreciation for Sauk County and the communities within has grown so much over the past months. What I've learned about leadership and communication will continue to serve me, in my career and personal life, long after I graduate from the program. I have gained valuable perspective and knowledge from community leaders and fellow SCIL classmates about important issues in Sauk County. The curriculum is outstanding and we are so fortunate to have this opportunity available to us in our county.

An invaluable resource for life. An extraordinary amount of skill, knowledge and material given in warm, fun and inspiring way. If you don't take something away from SCIL you need to look in the mirror.

In Their Own Words...

SCIL has been an absolutely awesome experience. The speakers have been phenomenal. We have visited and learned about many places in Sauk County that I didn't realize were here or what exactly they did. I have learned so much about myself, leadership and working towards a better me. Most importantly, I have made connections with people that work in Sauk County that I probably would've never had the opportunity to meet without this class. I hope they stay life long friends. Great class!! Great group of people that I will keep in touch with forever.

THANK YOU SCIL!!!!

Karen Kothbauer

Being a recent transplant to Sauk County, I was eager to meet new people, learn more about the issues facing Sauk County residents, and develop leadership skills to be successful at my job and also within my community. My SCIL experience was much more eye opening than I could have imagined – I was already in love with the county I call home, but SCIL helped to reinforce why I wanted to live here. I thought I knew a lot about Sauk County, but SCIL exposed me to so many more issues, resources, challenges, and successes that could be found in my school district, my neighborhood, or my township. I knew I had strong leadership skills, but SCIL helped to strengthen those existing leadership skills and expose those I did not know I had. I knew I'd develop relationships with my SCIL classmates, but SCIL provided a welcoming environment that helped to produce relationships I know will be life-long. I feel I am a more rounded citizen of Sauk County thanks to SCIL.
