2019 Annual Program Report

A few words from the Board President...

I have been trying to figure out a way to encapsulate all that has happened with SCIL over the past two years since I “stumbled” into the office of the presidency and then I ran across this quote of unknown origin. It states, “Be strong enough to let go, and patient enough to wait for what you deserve!” Strangely enough, I think this little nugget may just be what I’ve been looking for, for a couple of reasons.

First the idea of being “strong enough to let go” speaks volumes to me about the strength of SCIL, its participants, its board members, as well as folks like Jenny and Morgan who felt that SCIL was strong enough to let go of the ways it had done things for the past 20 years and reinvent, reimagine, and revitalize itself through investigation, critical analysis, and some good old fashioned heartfelt soul searching. We were all RIGHT- it was strong enough to let go, and we were wise to do so.

Second, the idea of being “patient enough to wait for what you deserve” may sound a bit trite, but given that we live in a world where patience appears to be on the “endangered characteristics” list (if there is such a thing), where we all seem to want everything to conform to an Amazon NOW! format, or be able to somehow STREAM to our phones, tablets, or google glasses for immediate consumption - it does appear that being patient enough to wait for ANYTHING anymore might soon be beyond many people’s capabilities. And yet, look at our reward for being patient. SCIL now has a completely redesigned curriculum that utilizes the latest in adult learning models. It has a new app for increased access to all things SCIL-related. Both for participants, and for folks that just want to know more, the SCIL methodology is more understandable, approachable, and marketable than ever before. It is, in fact, the SCIL program that the present and future leaders of Sauk County and beyond . . . deserve.

It has been an honor to serve alongside a group of people that worked so hard to bring it to this next level. It is my deepest hope and prayer that our first class of SCIL 2.0 graduates and those to come in the next 20 years or more reap even more of the sorts of benefits that all our alumni have to date. Carpe Diem!

2018-19 SCIL Program Curriculum

September — Defining Leadership: Relationships That Matter

October — Walking in Tight Shoes: Feeling the Pinch of Poverty in Sauk County

November — Contrast Makes the Picture Better: Seeing Diversity in a Different Light

December — Sparks will Fly: Mentorship Ignites Personal Potential

January — Made From Scratch: Real Leadership is Home-cooked

February — The Shadow Side of Leadership: Conflict, Negotiation and Critical Thinking Skills

March — Legacy of Change

April — Economy and Destination as Attractor Factors to Sauk County

May — Celebration of Leadership

Sauk County Institute of Leadership brings together potential leaders from various segments of the community in a program that encourages and prepares participants for strengthening or assuming leadership roles in their places of employment and the Sauk County community.

Sauk County Institute of Leadership Mission Statement:

“To Inspire and Engage Creative Leaders Working to Build a Stronger, More Vibrant Sauk County Community”

The SCIL Board of Directors would like to recognize the extraordinary work done by the curriculum committee in the re-imagining of the SCIL program. Bev Vallaincourt, Jenny Erickson and Morgan McArthur brought our vision of what this program could be to life and we will continue to improve the program with feedback from each class going forward.

The Sauk County Institute of Leadership (SCIL) is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. All donations to SCIL are tax deductible.

If you live or work in the Sauk County area and are interested in bettering yourself and your community, SCIL may be for you!

In Their Own Words...

In Their Own Words...

I would recommend SCIL to anyone who has any interest in community or leadership. It has been such a positive experience, both personally and professionally. SCIL has been very motivating; it has inspired me to do more and has pushed me to be better. SCIL offers great professional development with amazing facilitators, guest speakers and active learning experiences. The relationships built within our class over the last year are an added bonus!

I'd highly recommend the SCIL program! Each class builds upon skills and subjects previously explored. The instructors do a fabulous job intertwining relationships with leadership skills and issues important to communities in Sauk County. We have taken deep dives into subjects that are relevant and important to developing our best leadership skills, learning about ourselves, our classmates and our communities along the way. The classes are very inspiring, motivating me to do more and make a difference.
