2020 Annual Program Report

A few words from the Board President...

Lately, I think everyone has a little bit of that feeling of being tied to the tracks and the train is coming. So many facets of humanity have been laid bare by the current COVID crisis. The best and the worst of us is out there plainly for all to see. Now more than ever, our perspectives and personal biases are influencing what we see and how we interpret much of it. It's at times like this that a program like SCIL makes its true value known to participants and alumni like myself. SCIL experiences and its curriculum are evidence to everyone how important it is to have our leaders shaped by well-rounded experience and knowledge, tempered with open ended discussions that try to allow for every voice to be heard. It provides an arena where the virtues of leadership can be tested and tried by fire if you will. To bring out the best nuggets in all of us as well as reveal our own personal "slag." It is a journey and a process that each leader must be willing to take in order to learn how to lead.

At the beginning of this year, we were excited to have tested our new curriculum in 2018-19 and were ready to roll it out to a new class complete with tweaks and improvements, and new ideas. The laboratory doors were thrown open and we all rushed in with yet another stellar group of participants. It was full speed ahead throughout all of the Fall and Winter months and then COVID hit in full force. This class could not continue as planned, we were off the tracks. So, our SCIL leadership team got to work on adopting technologies, changing courses, finding new delivery channels for speakers and topics. In short, we didn't run from, we ran INTO the challenges. We got our hands dirty, we made some mistakes, but we adapted and at the end of the day we provided the content needed to help this current class learn, see, and try out leadership techniques and issues. It has been an interesting ride, but then life is like that. I hope if you're reading this that you will give SCIL a chance to build the new and existing leaders that are all around us. They are people that want to see the world from an "open to learn" vantage point. They are the people that will lead us in and through the next crisis. I hope you will encourage, support and empower them to participate in the 2020-21 class. Get your ticket - All aboard!

In Their Own Words...

SCIL is unlike any other leadership course available. It combines learning about the accomplishments, challenges, and teachings of leaders in Sauk County with learning how these leaders are working to build and grow the County for the future. It teaches you about yourself and the pervasive characteristics of a good leader through art, field trips, readings, discussions, and interactive exercises. It is a program filled with reminders to be authentic, seek growth in challenges, and encourage opportunities that lift others. If you take this course and commit to implementing the lessons presented, be prepared to change and grow. Be prepared to be inspired and challenged. I am very grateful that Sauk County has developed such a wonderful and innovative program. If you don't get an opportunity to work with Jenny and Morgan at some point in your life, you are missing out.

Sincerely,
Adrienne Olson

In Their Own Words...

I was encouraged to attend SCIL by my employer and I'm so thankful I was offered that opportunity. SCIL has pushed me out of my leadership "comfort zone" and motivated me to become a more active and valuable member of our community. I am grateful for the wonderful people I have met through this program. I highly recommend local leaders of all ages to attend this premier institute or encourage their employees to do so.

Sponsorship

Please partner with us in our work to build and strengthen community leadership by supporting SCIL at one of the following levels:

Program Support $500

Help underwrite the costs of a single SCIL leadership session. Your name or your company's name will be featured in written materials and credit will be given during the program by facilitators.

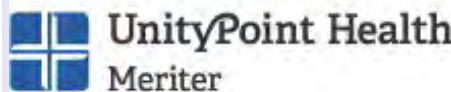

Legacy Scholarship Sponsors Any amount

These monies are endowed in the Sauk County Leadership Institute's Community Leadership Fund and are used to provide partial or full scholarships for participants that have high potential but are low on resources. Peers and associates may recognize a person's passion and dedication to leading Sauk County organizations but they may lack wherewithal to attend SCIL.

Exclusive Day Sponsor $1500

Keynote sponsors help underwrite the costs of bringing specialty speakers to SCIL to build leadership skills (example: supporting costs of hiring a renowned diversity trainer from Rock County). Keynote sponsors receive credit and coverage on handout and electronic materials. In return for generous sponsorship, companies are eligible to receive a one-hour training session taught by SCIL facilitators on a subject (and at a time) that is mutually agreeable.
