

Session 7: Legacy of Change

Location: Sauk County Historical Society Museum
Van Orden Mansion
531 4th Ave
Baraboo, WI 53913

Date: March 14th, 2019 8:30am to 4:30pm

Learning Objectives:

- Identify and describe five former Sauk County leaders and their impacts on local communities
- List the steps needed to build a strong team
- Identify steps needed create and manage change as a local leader

Groundwork and preparation:

- Prepare a five minute presentation on a local leader. See Legacy of Leadership Challenge handout for additional information.

Thursday, March 14th

8:30am - 9:00am	Opening Jen Erickson, UW-Madison Extension
9:00am - 11:00am	A Legacy of Leadership: A Sauk County Treasure Hunt Facilitated by Paul Wolter, Executive Director, Sauk County Historical Society	Sauk County Historical Society
11:00am - 11:15pm	Break	Sauk County Historical Society
11:15am - 11:45am	Class Project: Leadership In Action Morgan McArthur, UW-Madison Extension	Sauk County Historical Society
11:45am - 12:30pm	Catered Lunch by Baraboo Burger Company	Sauk County Historical Society
12:30pm - 1:30pm	A Leadership Legacy is Like LEGOs: It Can Last if you Assemble the Right People	Sauk County Historical Society

1:30pm - 1:45pm	Break	Sauk County Historical Society
1:45pm - 2:30pm	You Don't Need a Title to be a Leader: The Story of Milly Zantow Al Anderson, Former SCIL Board Member	Sauk County Historical Society
2:30pm-2:45pm	Break	Sauk County Historical Society
2:45pm - 3:45pm	Frozen with Fear in the Chill of Change? Morgan McArthur, UW-Madison Extension	Sauk County Historical Society
3:45pm - 4:15pm	Closing Jen Erickson, UW-Madison Extension	Sauk County Historical Society